11th December 2020

Dear Parents,

Reminder Please remember to return Swimming Consent and Data Collection Forms.

We are delighted to confirm that we have appointed Mrs Knight to the position of Early Years/ KS1 teacher. We are very much looking forward to working with Mrs Knight on a permanent basis. Mrs Knight brings with her a wealth of experience and skills to enhance the learning and progress in Base 1.

Nativity Rehearsals have now begun for our school Nativity with a twist. We will film our production and post this on our social media sites to share with the community next week.

Christmas Craft Club Monday 14th 3.15 - 4.15 pm We had great fun embroidering wooden Christmas trees last week. Our next and final session will include decorating chalk baubles.

Christmas Post Box The Christmas Post Box is in the shared space. Cards are to be posted every Monday (Book bag day) and will be delivered every Thursday (Book bag day). Please only bring cards in on a Monday so they can be 'quarantined' until Thursday.

Thursday 17th December – Christmas Party, Christmas Lunch, Christmas Jumper day (non-uniform) and a few surprises!

Base 1 Can't believe we only have one week left before the Christmas holidays. We have been busy in Literacy, working on poetry. We worked in pairs to learn a poem, with actions and performed them too. In Numeracy we have worked hard to practise our skills with money, using the bar model to work out change. We are feeling Christmassy and learning Christmas finger rhymes and we are very proud of our calendars, we can't wait for you to see them! Please remember to check Teams (maybe turn on notifications so you don't miss anything). Once everyone is checking regularly then I will put more things on there.

Base 2 This week we completed our pointillism pictures of famous French landmarks.

Kind Regards,
