Child Leaving School Premises Policy & Procedure

Goathland School takes the safety of children very seriously and takes every precaution necessary to ensure that the children in their care do not leave the school building or grounds unsupervised. The chances of finding a missing child safe are greatest if the child's absence is soon discovered. In the unlikely event that a child is noted to be missing from school premises, the school puts into practice agreed procedures. These ensure the most effective resolution of this potentially distressing situation.

Many of our school plans, routines and procedures contribute to the prevention of a child going missing, and to ensuring the safety and security of all children at all times.

If a member of staff is not able to account for a child's whereabouts, at any time in or out of the classroom or school buildings, or in the school grounds, the following action will be taken:

Stage One - Search systematically

- All available staff to immediately check toilets, shared areas, rooms, playground and outbuildings to ensure the child is not hiding or locked in anywhere.
- One member of staff to immediately inform school office and the Headteacher or member of staff in charge and check whether the child has been signed out for an external appointment or has an internal appointment with a visiting professional. (School Nurse/Speech Therapist etc) The online register will need checking by office staff as soon as a missing child has been reported.
- One member of staff to gather class and call the register to confirm that one named child is missing. All before and after-school clubs have a register, and children are handed to their parent or carer by the person running the club at the end of the session.
- Staff will ensure that all other pupils are kept safe and closely supervised throughout incident should it be during the school day. Calm should be kept in the event of a child reported missing at the end of the school day.

Stage Two

- After stage one is completed without resolution (no more than 10 minutes), school office staff will contact the police and parents/carers with parental responsibility. At this point, school will support the police who will now lead the response to this incident. The Headteacher will liaise with emergency services and parents/carers.

- Staff will call registers in all classes to confirm presence of other pupils, if the event is during the school day.

Stage Three

- The Headteacher should communicate the incident to the appropriate Local Authority Office and the Chair of Governors.
- A written record of the incident and any action taken should be made as soon after the incident as practicable and placed in the pupil's confidential record. The system the school uses is CPOMS (Child Protection Online Monitoring Service) and all staff should input any relevant information; including conversations with parents, carers, child minders, police, the Local Authority and any other person they feel has contributed to the collection of evidence.
- The headteacher should conduct an internal investigation to establish how the situation occurred, how effective was the response and whether action could be taken to ensure it does not happen again. This information should also be collected in writing and onto the CPOMS system.

PROCEDURE FOR MISSING CHILD ON OFF-SITE SCHOOL VISITS

If a child goes missing from an educational visit where parents are not attending and responsible for their own child, the following procedure applies:

- As soon as it is noticed that a child is missing, staff on the visit ask children to stand with their designated person and carry out a headcount to ensure that no other child has gone astray.
- One staff member will search the immediate vicinity but does not search beyond that.
- The staff contact the police using a mobile phone and report the child as missing
- The person in charge informs the Headteacher who will then liaise with the police, inform the local authority and contact the family.
- If appropriate, the Headteacher may make her way to the venue to aid the search and be the point of contact for the police as well as support staff.
- In an indoor venue, the staff contact the venue's security staff who will handle the search and contact the police if the child is not found.

We will ensure that:

We make regular checks to ensure that if an incident of this sort does happen, we have all the necessary phone numbers at hand – correct, up to date and kept together.

If the police are called then the NYCSB and Ofsted are also informed.

If the Headteacher or Chair of Governors is not on the premises, she/he will be informed as soon as possible via the school secretary or senior staff member in charge.

We will provide the following information to Ofsted/the NYCSB:

- What happened?
- What systems are in place for preventing such occurrences?
- What we did, at what time and in what order.
- Who we informed and when.

We will cooperate fully in any investigation.

Dealing with people's reactions

We accept that the child's parents will be frightened, distressed and angry. If the setting shares all policies with parents/carers, the situation will be easier for all because there will be an understanding of working within a framework of mutual trust and understanding.

We accept that in such circumstances powerful emotions are involved and people's behaviour can be unpredictable. Those who may seem quite calm about the incident at the time can later become angry, threaten legal action or approach the local press.

We will be clear about the circumstances surrounding the incident and will respond sympathetically to questions without implications or admission of responsibility.

Responses could include

- How sorry you are that the incident has happened.
- That a full investigation is in hand.
- That the Local Safeguarding Children's Board/Ofsted has been informed and will be investigating.

Dealing with the media

Distressed parents may contact the local press, or reporters may hear about the incident if the police are involved. It is sensible for one person, usually the Headteacher or Chair of Governors to be the one who speaks for the setting. All adults will be asked to refer all enquiries to the agreed spokesperson, in line with the North Yorkshire Serious Incidents Guide.

When the child is found

We recognise that during the time a child is missing, however briefly, all involved, parents and others suffer great fear, guilt and distress. It is not always easy to control all these emotions when the child is found. We will accept that it is important to remember:

- That the child also might have been afraid and distressed and might now be in need of comfort.
- Remain calm, reassure the child and acknowledge it is not the child's fault.
- Ensure the child is not hurt.
- That the incident provides a good opportunity to talk to all the children to ensure that they understand that they must not leave the premises, and why.

After the Incident

- We will review our current procedure.
- We will evaluate processes and make necessary adjustments to ensure future effectiveness.
